Holy Apostles College & Seminary is seeking to hire a full-time faculty member for its on-campus undergraduate philosophy and pre-theology programs. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Philosophy with a grounding in the perennial philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas (per the “Decree on the Reform of Ecclesiastical Studies of Philosophy” (2011) from the Congregation for Catholic Education) so that he or she is able to ensure Catholic seminarians “develop an understanding of the relationship between faith and reason and the relationship and interaction between philosophy and theology” (Program of Priestly Formation, 5th Edition, para. 153).

Applicants must be supportive of the mission of a Catholic college, as outlined in Ex corde ecclesiae, and supportive of the charism of the Missionaries of the Holy Apostles; demonstrate an understanding of and commitment to the Catholic philosophical tradition; and be dedicated to high quality liberal arts teaching at a residential college and seminary. The qualified candidate holds a doctoral degree in philosophy and has a thorough grounding in the history of philosophy, stands within and can articulate well the philosophia perennis of the Catholic intellectual tradition, and provides evidence of quality teaching experience.

Salary and rank commensurate with experience. CVs and cover letters that demonstrate a familiarity with the papal instruction in the philosophical education of college seminarians preparing for priestly formation should be emailed to the attention of Dr. Lisa Gulino D.Min. Academic Dean for on-Campus programs. lgulino@holyapostles.edu.
