Join Us As We Explore

The Most Holy Cloth
The Shroud of Turin

It is said to have been brought from the Mideast to Europe by the Knights Templar, and it is purportedly the most studied artifact in history. But the greatest claim made for this cloth is that it is the actual burial cloth of Christ.

What is it, where did it come from, can it really be the burial cloth of Christ – wasn't it proven a fake?

Come hear Deacon Ben LoCasto answer these questions in a one hour discussion. Deacon LoCasto is a Permanent Deacon of the Diocese of Norwich, serving the Parish of the Good Shepherd. He Licensed Clinical Social Worker, certified Spiritual Director, as well as the the Northeast Commander of the Templars Today.

Holy Apostles
College & Seminary

Tuesday, March 25, 2025
7:00pm -8:00pm
St. Peter's Hall
33 Prospect Hill Road, Cromwell, CT

Followed by a complimentary dessert reception at St. Peter's Hall

Cost: No Charge

RSVP: Register online at www.HolyApostles.edu/shroud or
Or please call Suzanne Gendron at 860-632-3067 or by email at sgendron@holyapostles.edu to register or for more information.